Exhibit Preview

Welcome: 9:00-9:15 AM

Session One: 9:15-10:15 AM

Local Poverty: Up Close and Personal

Kelli Knapp

Seneca District Consultant

What does poverty look like. Kelli will present an exhibit of photographs and narratives by local residents who live in poverty. She will discuss how the project started and the many steps along the way. This exhibit will impact how you view your community.

Break: 10:15-10:30 AM

Session Two: 10:30-11:30 AM

Beyond Our Walls: Read Me a Story

Robert Lambert

President, York County Libraries

Lisa Schmittle

Children's Program Manager

Beyond Our Walls is a partnership with York County Libraries and York County Prison which seeks to address needs of incarcerated parents and their children. A voice recording of the parent reading to the child bridges the emotional gap and connects parent to child beyond the prison walls that divide them. The library then provides additional resources to the families and inmates upon their release fostering lifelong library users.

Break: 11:30-11:45 PM

Lunch and Video: 11:45-1:30 PM

Paper Tigers

Paper Tigers captures the pain, the danger, the beauty, and the hopes of struggling teens—and the teachers armed with new science and fresh approaches that are changing their lives for the better.

Session 3: 1:30– 2:30PM

Compassion Fatigue

Alice Collier

Yorktowne Psychological and Addiction Services

Professionals involved with high need populations often experience stress in their professional and personal lives effecting their relationships and emotional health. This session will give you the tools to support staff and your own resiliency in the face of others trauma.

Break: 2:30-2:45 PM

Session 4: 2:45-3:45 PM

Contemplation

Break out discussions: How has today's sessions impacted you personally? What changes can occur in your library based on today's sessions? How can your library impact your community and the individuals with the greatest needs?

Closing: 3:45 -4:00 PM
